

Learning Environments: Enhancing Engagement, Attention, and Sensory Regulation

Immerse yourself in a 60-90 minute professional development session for educators, dedicated to understanding and enhancing engagement, attention, and sensory regulation.

- Gain insights into the factors influencing engagement and attention in learning environments.
- Explore the significance of sensory regulation and its impact on learning processes.
- Discover a toolkit of effective tips and tricks tailored to grow engagement and regulate sensory experiences in diverse learning.
- Embrace inclusive learning practices designed to accommodate various sensory needs and engage all learners effectively.
- Engage in an in-depth analysis of case studies, highlighting successful approaches and challenges in promoting engagement, attention, and sensory regulation.
- Equip parents with knowledge and strategies to support their children's engagement, attention, and sensory regulation within home environments.
- Cost: $350. At a location of your choosing.

Contact: Laura Hull
Director, Senior Occupational Therapist
laura@loophtherapy.net.au
Ph 0415 533 270

